BERLIN, June 9.—New threats of imprisonment against Germans and foreigners who fail to report their holdings of money in foreign countries were made by the government today when details of a new decree of "treason to German national economy" were published.

Prison sentences as high as 15 years are provided in the decree. Holdings must be reported before Aug. 31. The decree further provides that no person in Germany will be permitted to possess more than $43 worth of foreign currencies.

For the first time in German history a murder trial was registered on wax records today. The proceedings will be broadcast later over German radio stations. The occasion was the trial of four communists accused of killing a Nazi storm trooper.

Prefer Jail to Russia.

One of the accused Reds has been in Russia and is expected to repeat a declaration he made to police that he prefers to be in a German jail than to be allowed his liberty and suffer in soviet Russia.

Meanwhile the government announced that the total of idle in Germany dropped one million from its winter peak in mid-February to the end of May. At that time the idle totaled 5,040,000. In the second half of May the figure declined by 212,000. The improvement in employment is not confined to seasonal workers, but involves other groups. This is hailed as indicating a revival of trade and industry.

Reichstag Member Suicide.

MUNICH, Germany, June 9.—Antonie Pfuelf, Socialist member of the reichstag, committed suicide today at her residence here by taking an overdose of a sleeping potion. She was formerly a high school teacher. The victim, who was 55 years old, was a member of the reichstag since 1920. She participated in the Weimar national assembly at which the republican constitution was drawn up.

Jewish Students Arrested.

ORANIENBURG, Germany, June 9.—(P)—The newspaper Kruezzzeitung said today that youthful inmates of a Jewish boarding school in nearby Wolzinz were arrested and removed to a political concentration camp here after a raid on the institution by Nazi storm troops and gendarmes. It was claimed that arms and subversive documents were found in the youths' possession.
