

pg. 4

O. D. Young Heads Red Cross Roll

Owen D. Young, chairman of the board of General Electric Co, has assumed the general chairmanship of the 1936 roll call for the New York chapter of American Red Cross, it has been announced. George L. Harrison, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, has become chairman of the special gifts committee. A fund of $325,000 will be sought, it was stated.