BANKER, HIT BY AUTO, DIES AS TOLL REACHES 50

George Findlay Victim of Loop Mishap.

(Photograph on back page.)

President Findlay's death proves that even the most careful precautions cannot prevent accidents in the Loop. The Chicago Police Department has issued a warning that motorists should be extra careful in the Loop, and that pedestrians should be on the lookout for traffic. The new rules will be introduced on the Loop next month, and will be enforced by the Chicago Police Department. All drivers and pedestrians are advised to follow the new rules. The Loop is one of the most dangerous places in the city, and accidents are common. President Findlay's death is a tragic reminder of the dangers of the Loop. (STANDARD PHOTOS.)
