Newspaper Specials
Condensed Items of Financial Interest From American Newspapers

Wall Street Journal
Jul 24, 1934
pg. 3

Delivery stores and shoe stores have reported good increases.

Frederick M. Cushman, chairman of Shan-nessy Banks, Ltd., and well-known British financier, is planning new business propositions which would benefit American industries.

Special commission named by the Wall Street Journal reports to General Johnson that employment of women by industry is at a low ebb. The Wall Street Journal has always been among the first to point out the need for female labor.

Harold Truvey, copyright stock manager of a bottling company in New York, has recently been described as "the man with the golden touch." His recent transactions with tobacco and tinplate companies have enabled him to buy large quantities of materials at much lower prices than were available to other companies.

A recent article in the New York Times has pointed out that the number of bankruptcies among glass manufacturers has increased significantly. The situation is expected to worsen as the demand for glass products decreases.

Studies of the Bank of America situation show that a large portion of the bank's capital has been transferred to other institutions.

The Bank of America has announced a new plan to increase its capital by $50,000,000.

German commercial and financial matters, are being closely watched by British financial advisers. The German government has recently announced a new economic program that is expected to improve the country's financial position.

The Federal Reserve Board has announced that it will hold a meeting on August 1 to discuss the recent developments in the stock market.

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve has extended its credit facilities to give aid to the banks in the South. This move is expected to stabilize the Southern financial market.

The New York Stock Exchange has announced that it will hold a series of auctions to dissolve the large number of pending transactions.

The New York Times has reported that the stock market is expected to continue its decline. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times, in an editorial, has pointed out that the current economic crisis is a danger to the entire world. The newspaper has urged the government to take immediate steps to prevent a worldwide economic catastrophe.

The Wall Street Journal has reported that the government is taking steps to stabilize the stock market. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times has reported that the
stock market is expected to continue its decline. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times, in an editorial, has
pointed out that the current economic crisis is a danger to the entire world. The newspaper has
urged the government to take immediate steps
to prevent a worldwide economic catastrophe.

The Wall Street Journal has reported that
the government is taking steps to stabilize the
stock market. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times has reported that the
stock market is expected to continue its decline. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times, in an editorial, has
pointed out that the current economic crisis is a danger to the entire world. The newspaper has
urged the government to take immediate steps
to prevent a worldwide economic catastrophe.

The Wall Street Journal has reported that
the government is taking steps to stabilize the
stock market. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times has reported that the
stock market is expected to continue its decline. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times, in an editorial, has
pointed out that the current economic crisis is a danger to the entire world. The newspaper has
urged the government to take immediate steps
to prevent a worldwide economic catastrophe.

The Wall Street Journal has reported that
the government is taking steps to stabilize the
stock market. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times has reported that the
stock market is expected to continue its decline. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times, in an editorial, has
pointed out that the current economic crisis is a danger to the entire world. The newspaper has
urged the government to take immediate steps
to prevent a worldwide economic catastrophe.

The Wall Street Journal has reported that
the government is taking steps to stabilize the
stock market. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times has reported that the
stock market is expected to continue its decline. The newspaper has advised investors to
sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times, in an editorial, has
pointed out that the current economic crisis is a danger to the entire world. The newspaper has
urged the government to take immediate steps
to prevent a worldwide economic catastrophe.

The Wall Street Journal has reported that
the government is taking steps to stabilize the
stock market. The newspaper has advised investors to sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times has reported that the
stock market is expected to continue its decline. The newspaper has advised investors to
sell their stocks immediately.

The New York Times, in an editorial, has
pointed out that the current economic crisis is a danger to the entire world. The newspaper has
urged the government to take immediate steps
to prevent a worldwide economic catastrophe.