Episcopalians Put Court Issue Aside

New York Diocese Votes "No Action" on Sending Roosevelt
A Message of Protest

The Episcopal Diocese of New York voted to "take no action" on the publication of a message of protest to the President, as was reported in the clipping of the Associated Press correspondent at the summer session of the House of Bishops of the Church of St. John the Divine. The clipping indicated that the message had been "rejected." The President of the clipping was "rejected." The action followed the re

Wallace Sees Weather Aiding the Court Plan
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 11.—Secretary Wallace said today that the weather might result in a large number of Supreme Court cases in the near future, which might aid his plan to alter the Supreme Court.

Dodd is Denounced by Court Bill Foes

Brooklyn, May 11.—The charges that the Court Bill, sponsored by Senator Dodd, was an invasion of State rights, were denounced in many sections of the country today, with the Belleville, Ill., News Tribune leading the charge. The newspaper said that the charges were "false and unmeritorious" and that the Court Bill was a "necessary evil." The newspaper
