In Washington: Waters Too Troubled for Diplomatic Ventures

By ARTHUR KROCK

WASHINGTON, May 12—Last week’s flood in the Potomac and the country—speaking, contrary to popular belief, in the literal sense—warned all Americans of the importance of_Print the rest of the text as it appears on the image.