

NEW WORLD ORDER PLEGGED TO JEWS

Arthur Greenwood of British War Cabinet Sends Message of Assurance Here

RIGHTING OF WRONGS SEEN

English Rabbi Delivers to Dr. S. S. Wise New Statement on Question After War

In the first public declaration on the Jewish question since the outbreak of the war, Arthur Greenwood, member without portfolio in the British War Cabinet, assured the Jews of the United States that when victory was achieved an effort would be made to found a new world order based on the ideals of "justice and peace."

Mr. Greenwood, who is Deputy Leader of the British Labor party, declared that in the new world the "conscience of civilized humanity would demand that the wrongs suffered by the Jewish people in so many countries should be righted."

He added that after the war an opportunity would be given to Jews everywhere to make a "distinctive and constructive contribution" in the rebuilding of the world.

Intention to Right Wrongs

Comparing the statement with the Balfour Declaration of 1917, Dr. Wise declared that in a sense it had "wider and farther reaching implications," as it dealt with the status of Jews throughout the world. He said that Mr. Greenwood's message could be interpreted as a statement of England's firm intention to help right the wrongs which Jews have suffered and continue to suffer today because of Hitler's "disorder and lawlessness."

Mr. Greenwood, sending the Jews of America a message of "encouragement and warm good wishes," wrote:

"The tragic fate of the Jewish victims of Nazi tyranny has, as you know, filled us with a deep emotion. The speeches of responsible statesmen in Parliament and at the League of Nations during the last seven years have reflected the horror with which the people of this country have viewed the Nazi relapse into barbarism."

"The British Government sought again to secure some amelioration of the lot of persecuted Jewry both in Germany itself and in the countries which were infected by the Nazi doctrine of racial hatred. Today the same sinister power which has trampled on its own defenseless minorities, and by fraud and force has temporarily robbed many small peoples of their independence, has challenged the last stronghold of liberty in Europe."

New World Order Forecast

"When we have achieved victory, as we assuredly shall, the nations will have the opportunity of establishing a new world order based on the ideals of justice and peace. In such a world it is our confident hope that the conscience of civilized humanity would demand that the wrongs suffered by the Jewish people in so many countries should be righted."

"In the rebuilding of civilized society after the war, there should and will be a real opportunity for Jews everywhere to make a distinctive and constructive contribution; and all men of good-will must assuredly hope that in new Europe the Jewish people, in whatever country they may live, will have freedom and full equality before the law with every other citizen."

In an interview at the Hotel Astor, Rabbi Peretzweig declared he was certain Mr. Greenwood "speaks for England." There is a clear realization, he added, that freedom and emancipation for the Jewish people are tied up with emancipation and freedom for people everywhere. The message, Rabbi Peretzweig remarked, was the subject of earnest consideration by the British Government.

"This is a declaration in behalf of the whole world," he observed. "Here the British Government expresses clearly what it hopes will take place after the war is won."

AIDS HOSPITAL IN BRITAIN

Group Here Sends $20,000 to Re-equip Hadfield-Spears Unit

The British War Relief Society, 587 Fifth Avenue, sent $20,000 yesterday to England to re-equip the Hadfield-Spears Field Hospital, which is being reorganized in Britain, according to Samuel A. Seligson, president of the society, after its destruction in Lorraine when France was defeated.

The hospital was attached to the Fourth French Army until June 6 and after the French surrender its staff offered their services to General de Gaulle. A canteen was quickly organized and moved into camp with the French troops in England.

An appeal for khaki woolen garments for British troops in Iceland and the Orkney Islands was received yesterday by Bundles for Britain, 745 Fifth Avenue, from Lady Kemsley, British relief executive in London.

The Foster Parents Plan for War Children, 55 West Forty-second Street, yesterday appealed for funds for a newly opened home for expectant refugee mothers at Stoke Newington, England. The home has fifty beds. It was said, for French, Czech, Belgian and British refugee expectant mothers who already have young children.

41,000 in New Zealand Forces

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Oct. 5.—Defense Minister M. F. Jones announced today that Zealand's home land forces would total 41,000 by next March and that most of these men would be trained to the standards of an expeditionary force. New Zealand has 1,000 airmen in Britain, Mr. Jones said, and a substantial percentage of these have gone to the Fleet Air Arm. Up to Sept. 19 only 640 airmen had been sent from here, he said, and will be sent six times as fast. Casualties among airmen total 187, of whom all but twenty-one are dead, missing or prisoners.
