Gulfstream Lined Up on Bush's Side

S avannah’s Gulfstream Aero space Corporation is one of a handful of Georgia-based compa nies or individuals who contrib ute millions of dollars to the Republican National Commit tee and President Bush’s cam paign fund. Bush is expected to receive a campaign contribution of $260,000 from the company.

Bush campaign contributions are made in addition to the $2.3 bil lion Bush has raised through his General Committee.

The company is also a contribu tor to the Georgia Republican state committee, the Georgia

Republican party, and the De troit Republican League.

The campaign contributions will likely be used to support Bush’s campaign efforts in states such as Florida, where he is currently leading in the polls.

The contributions are part of a larger trend of corporate financ ing of political campaigns, which has become increasingly common in recent years.

BEVERLY'S HILLS, CA

au Paul Simon announced to reporters outside a Beverly Hills conference that Disney, the world leader in children’s programming, would be cutting back on violence in its television shows.

"The violence in our children’s pro gramming is unacceptable," Simon said.

"We need to do more than just talk about it. We need to take action."
